

Press Release – Soul de Vienne

*Soul de Vienne ignite rhythm and romance with their vibrant Soul-Latin single

“To Love Is To Risk”

Austrian collective Soul de Vienne, led by composer and producer Roman Schleisnitz, set hearts in motion with their electrifying new release “To Love Is To Risk.”

Blending Soul, Latin, and Jazz with cinematic flair, the song celebrates passion, courage, and the irresistible power of rhythm.

At its core shines Andrea Guerrini’s brilliant trumpet performance, matched by Daniel Sadownick’s masterful percussion, whose dynamic grooves drive the track with vibrant Latin energy.

Together with warm, soulful vocals and lush live instrumentation, “To Love Is To Risk” radiates elegance, movement, and joy — the heartbeat of modern Soul-Latin music.

“This song is pure Soul-Latin energy,” says Schleisnitz. “It’s about rhythm and emotion — the courage to open your heart and to dance with life itself.”

With shimmering brass, syncopated percussion, and cinematic depth, “To Love Is to Risk” blends Vienna’s elegance with the heartbeat of Latin groove.

It’s a song where groove meets tenderness, and every note speaks of connection and risk embraced through music.

Released on October 24, 2025, “To Love Is To Risk” marks the beginning of Soul de Vienne’s new season — one that continues with their upcoming holiday ballad “The Magic of Christmas” (out November 14, 2025).

Together, the two singles reveal the full spectrum of the band’s artistry — from rhythm and passion to warmth and intimacy.

“To Love Is To Risk”* — where Soul meets Latin groove, and love becomes movement.

Release Date: October 24, 2025

For radio, press, or sync inquiries: info@souldevienne.com